THE NEWS. The talegraph is very reticent to-day, having furnished us with not a single report. It may he produced by derangements of the wire, or going on.

THE SITUATION-PEDERAL AND CONFADERATE POLICIES.

The situation is rapidly assuming despegravity and importance than ever before attached to it. The pertinacity of Gen. GRANT in his "on to Richmond," evidently shows that the main purpose of the Lixcoln Government is to take Richmond. This is the highest object of their ambition. No matter how many men may be butchered in the attempt, the Lincoln Govrement will force GRANT to continue "pegging GRANT himself baving tried overy The ble line or plan of campaign, feels am-Diffia to retrieve lost reputation by desperate

Largeous in his Philadelphia speech on the 16th, said that "three years of war had destroyed many horses and produced a national debt with taxation apprecedented, but the war must be carried through until national authority is again extended over the whole national domain, if it requires three years more to accomplish it." This evidences that a new impetus will be given to the prosecution of the war, in order to seeme the election of the present chief ruler. Ambition and solfishness, as well as mational pride and the hope of plander, will arge them on? ward. There can be no possible doubt then that the fiercest struggle of the war is yet to

The enemy must have a specific line of policy in view. The Northern public have been led to believe that the capture and possession of the rabel capital will prove a death-blow to the Conacy, and shiver its backbone into fragpals have endsavered to correct this erroneous impression, but fanaticism never listens to the appeals of reason.
